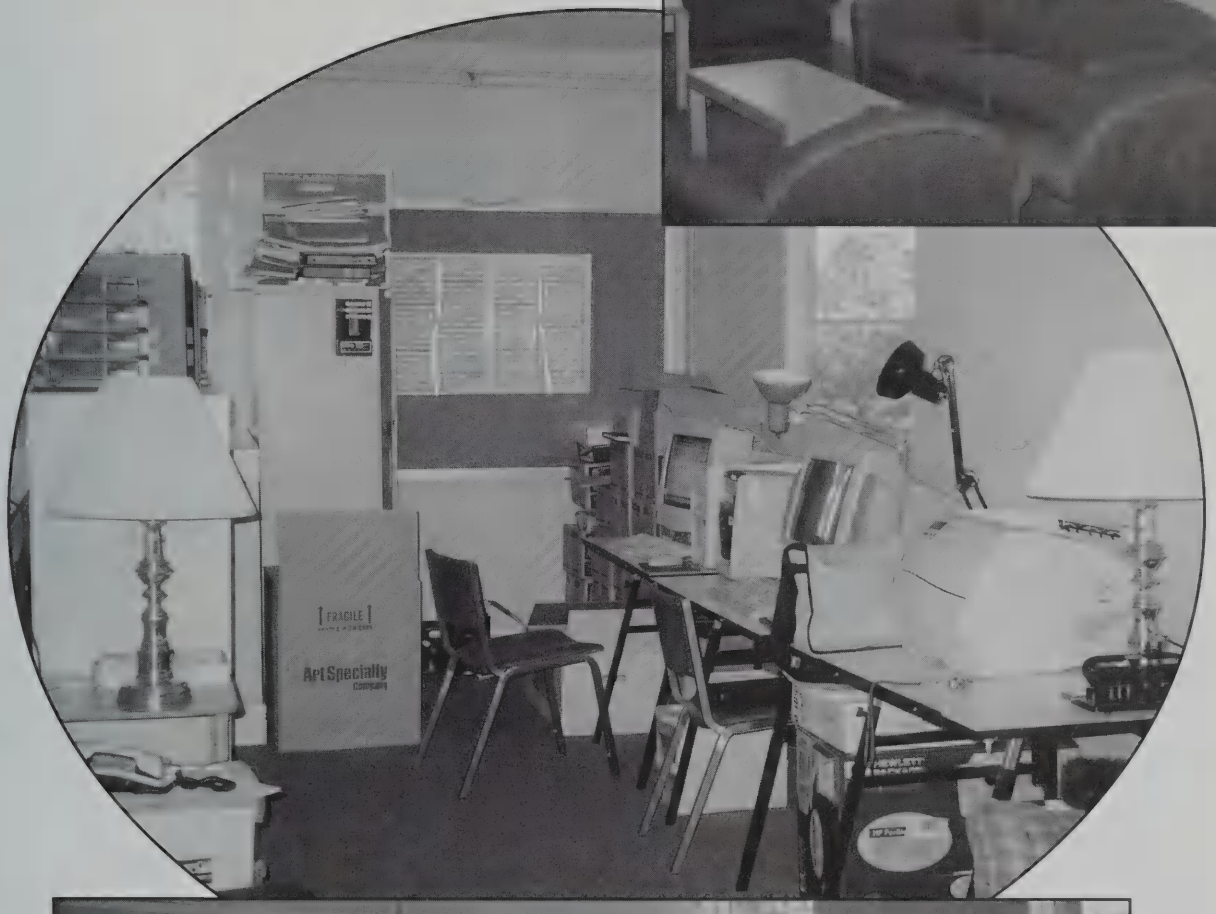
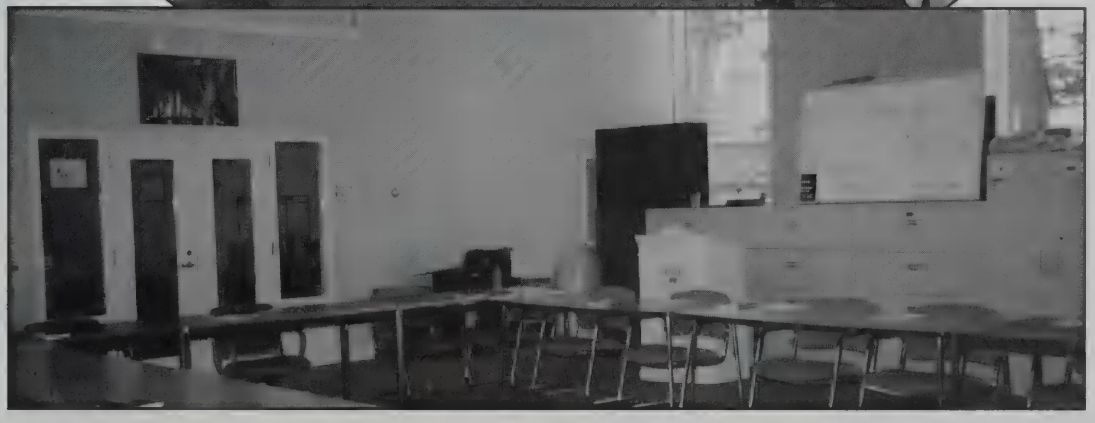
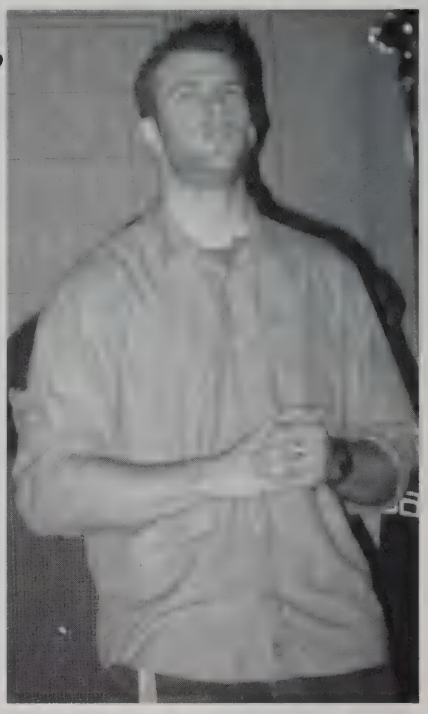
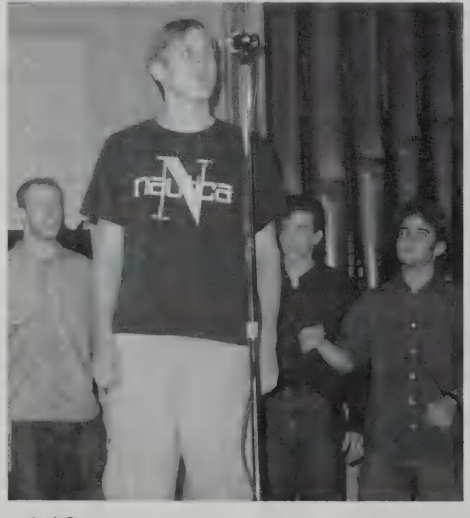
CLUBS





THE GENTLEMEN CALLERS





2001-2002 proved to be a great year for THE GENTLEMEN CALLERS. They continued their tradition of an East Coast Tour, making stops in NYC, Penn., and NJ. Their jams were also highly attended, making them the most popular group on campus. They also released a new CD this year, with songs that some have called "music for the heart that calms the soul and awakens the spirit." While the dynamics of the group are constantly changing, one thing remains the same. They will always be guys who love to sing, but hate to rehearse.

Anthropology Club provides the Wheaton community with something of the "anthropological experience". It does so by organizing events with a non-western focus or multicultural theme and by supporting multicultural events sponsored by other campus organizations. It also provides members with skills, information, and opportunities which would enhance their growth as young professionals in the discipline.

BACCHUS is a peer educational group on campus that promotes responsible drinking habits of students and provides alternative activities to students who do not wish to drink, including movies in the Science Center auditorium, and mocktails served at numerous events on campus. To increase student awareness of the dangers of alcohol when driving, artificially impaired vision goggles (beer goggles) are provided to drive a golf cart in the Dimple (Dimple Driving).

Backpacks to Mexico is an initiative designed to deliver backpacks and school supplies to severely impoverished areas of the Mexican border.

HOME (Helping Out Mother Earth) has been gaining momentum as a student organization dedicated to raising the community's awareness of environmental issues. Students have volunteered, provided support services to the Recycling Program, and sponsored campus lectures. Cooperating with staff, faculty, and other students, members have also brought Massachusetts Recycles Day and Earth Day to Wheaton.

Equestrian Team is a member of the Intercollegiate Horse Show Association. Riders, both male and female, can range from beginning levels through experienced open levels. For the past 3 years the team has been ranked number 3 in the Region against schools such as Harvard, Stonehill, Tufts, and Boston University.

Hillel is the Jewish student run organization on campus. We are open to the whole Wheaton community, students and faculty, Jewish and non-Jewish. We provide programming which promotes Judaism on campus as well as hold ties with the New England Region to attend other school programs.

Rushlight continues to serve as a publication for and by Wheaton students. The magazine represents Wheaton's writers and artists, by accepting submissions twice a year and subsequently publishing two editions. Rushlight is not only one of the oldest literary magazines in New England, it symbolizes an important tradition at Wheaton.

Wheaton Wire is the student-run newspaper. The goal of the staff is to keep the community informed of campus news. The Wire allows community members interested in the field of journalism to voice their opinions and apply their energy towards the production of the campus newspaper. All classes are involved so there are many students who will be around to make sure The Wire continues to improve in the years to come!

Wheaton's Organization for Women

Zen Meditation Group has taken a new approach this year. Every week, different Buddhist teachers are brought in to lead the group in meditation, followed by a short Dharma talk based on their individual experience as spiritual practitioners. This brings a range of ideas and perspectives on the individual spiritual practice. Though the theme of the group is Buddhist meditation, the group is not restricted to Buddhists. People with any or no religious experience are welcome to attend.

Thank you to the 2001-2002 yearbook staff for all of their hard work and creativity in making this year's book. The long hours spent in the yearbook office have really paid off and I couldn't have done it without you. Also, thank you to all the students who helped us by donating pictures this year.

Congratulations

Class of 2002!
